

Extra-Special “Kid Stuff” at Walt Disney World Resort

LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. – Extra-special adventures await toddlers, preschoolers and teens alike at Walt Disney World Resort. Kids can sing along with Chip ‘n’ Dale around a campfire, stay up all night playing video games or splash around at a water park — all without ever leaving Walt Disney World Resort. Even that timeless icon of kid cuisine — peanut butter and jelly — is reinvented Disney-style as the yummiest milkshake ever.

Other services at Walt Disney World Resort can make traveling with infants or small children more hassle-free and a whole lot more fun. And parents can enjoy a night out . . . and leave the kids at a Disney resort where they will be cared for and entertained.

Supervised Child Care

Supervised child care at the following resorts includes video games, arts & crafts, Disney movies, dinner, board games and activities. Hours are 4:30 p.m.-midnight daily (ages 4-12, toilet trained). For reservations, call 407/WDW-DINE.

- Cub’s Den, Disney’s Wilderness Lodge
- Never Land Club, Disney’s Polynesian Resort
- Sandcastle Club, Disney’s Beach Club Resort
- Simba’s Cubhouse, Disney’s Animal Kingdom Lodge

Disney’s Adventures for Kids

Children’s activity programs at Disney’s Grand Floridian Resort & Spa include:

- Disney’s Pirate Cruise Adventure, where children depart from the Grand Floridian Marina to visit exotic “ports of call” along Bay Lake and Seven Seas Lagoon as they follow clues and the pirate’s trail to buried treasure. During the voyage, the children enjoy a reading of “The Legend of Gasparilla.” Monday through Saturday, 9:30-11:30 a.m., includes a snack and drink (ages 4-10, toilet trained). For reservations, call 407/WDW-DINE.
- Wonderland Tea Party at 1900 Park Fare. “Tea party” for children hosted by characters from “Alice in Wonderland”; young guests make a craft to take home, decorate – and eat – cupcakes, and have “tea” with the characters. Monday-Friday, 2-3 p.m. (ages 4-10, toilet trained). For reservations, call 407/WDW-DINE.
- My Disney Girls Perfectly Princess Tea Party, a tea party fit for a princess at Garden View Tea Room. Girls are encouraged to attend dressed up in their favorite princess attire and enjoy tea filled with fantasy and delight. Little princesses will get the royal treatment with tea for two, deliciously decorative princess cakes, plus a personal meet-and-greet with Princess Aurora from the classic Disney animated film “Sleeping Beauty.” From 10:30 a.m.-noon most days (schedule varies, call 407/WDW-DINE for applicable days and reservations).

Children’s activity program at Disney’s Yacht Club Resort:

- On the Albatross Treasure Cruise, departing from Bayside Marina, children wear bandanas and follow clues to collect pirate treasure while sailing to many exotic “ports of call.” During the voyage, the children will enjoy a reading of “The Legend of the Albatross” and at the final port of call, will split up the treasure. Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 9:30-11:30 a.m., includes a snack and drink (ages 4-10, toilet trained). For reservations, call 407/WDW-DINE.

Children's activity program at Disney's Port Orleans Resort-Riverside:

- Disney's Bayou Pirate Adventure leaves the Riverside Marina on a hunt for pirate treasure. Children will learn about the pirate captain John Lafitte and follow his map to the hidden treasure. Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30-11:30 a.m., includes a snack and drink (ages 4-10, toilet trained). For reservations, call 407/WDW-DINE.

Magical Makeovers

- Bibbidi Bobbidi Boutique is a stylish salon that transforms kids, ages 3-12, into princesses, pop divas or even Hannah Montana – options include hair, makeup, nails and costumes. Little boys become knights, with a special hair style and a mighty sword and shield. Two locations: World of Disney store at Downtown Disney Marketplace and inside Cinderella Castle in Magic Kingdom.

- The Pirates League in Adventureland at Magic Kingdom transforms guests (ages 3 and up) into buccaneers with applications of beards and eye patches, scarves and scars, earrings and gold teeth, and pirate costumes and accessories.

Splash Into Water Fun

- Two water theme parks — Blizzard Beach and Typhoon Lagoon. Tikes Peak is a kid-size version of Blizzard Beach and includes a snow-castle fountain play area. Ketchakiddie Creek at Typhoon Lagoon features scaled-down water attractions with slides, floating boats and waterfalls. Kiddie pools available at most Walt Disney World resorts.

Fantastic Food, Kids Style

- Unique and tasty peanut butter and jelly shakes make for a cooling break for young and old alike at Disney's Hollywood Studios (50's Prime Time Café). Special kids menus with entrees like "Goofy's Goopy Grilled Cheese" and "Chip 'n' Dale's Peanut Pocket Plus," and drinks such as "Walk the Gangplank" and "The Swashbuckler" are available at most Disney table-service restaurants. Also children's portions of many adult entrees available on request.

Video Arcades, Playgrounds

- Video arcades at all Walt Disney World resorts and at Light & Power Video Arcade in Tomorrowland at Magic Kingdom. Playgrounds at all Walt Disney World resorts.

Miniature Golf

- Whimsical miniature golf at two distinct courses located in the Epcot resort area is fun for the whole family. Fantasia Gardens is an 18-hole miniature golf course with a theme taken from Disney's classic animated film "Fantasia," and Fantasia Fairways is an 18-hole "challenge" course designed with strategically placed bunkers and hazards.
- Disney's Winter Summerland, a 36-hole miniature golf course, is located near the entrance to Disney's Blizzard Beach water park. There are two 18-hole experiences. One course carries the zany, snow-clad Florida look reminiscent of Blizzard Beach, while the other takes a more tropical, holiday theme, with ornaments hanging from palm trees.
- Fantasia Gardens and Winter Summerland are open 10 a.m.-11 p.m. daily. Both courses offer group events. Call 407/WDW-PLAY for more information.

Movies

- AMC Pleasure Island 24 Theatres, 24 screens featuring top box-office flicks. For more information, call 407/298-4488.
