

Let it Go and Bundle Up for the “Frozen” Frenzy Throughout Disney Parks and Resorts

From the kingdom of Arendelle, guests can immerse themselves in the Oscar-winning animated blockbuster hit “Frozen” throughout Walt Disney Parks and Resorts. From meet and greets with royalty, to vacationing at the stunning sites that inspired the blockbuster film, here’s where you can enjoy your own icy adventures:

Walt Disney World Resort:

- Meet Elsa and Anna inside Princess Fairytale Hall in Fantasyland at Magic Kingdom
- Elsa and Anna appear in the new daytime spectacular “Disney Festival of Fantasy Parade” at Magic Kingdom
- Also at Magic Kingdom, the “Celebrate the Magic” nighttime projection show transforms Cinderella Castle with visuals from “Frozen”
- During the holiday season, Elsa will transform Cinderella Castle into a glistening ice palace during the nightly “Castle Dream Lights” celebration and “A Frozen Holiday Wish,” which starts in November
- At Disney’s Hollywood Studios, guests can sing along to “Frozen” songs with Elsa, Anna, Kristoff and the Royal Historians of Arendelle daily through the holidays and continuing indefinitely at “For the First Time in Forever – a ‘Frozen’ Sing-Along Celebration” inside Premiere Theater
- Wandering Oaken’s at Disney’s Hollywood Studios invites guests to shop for “Frozen” merchandise and invites them to enjoy a large play area with real snow

Disneyland Resort:

- Meet Elsa and Anna in Fantasyland at Disneyland Park
- Olaf the snowman greets Disneyland park guests before they meet Elsa and Anna in Fantasyland
- Elsa and Olaf appear in “World of Color – Winter Dreams,” the holiday version of the popular after-dark spectacular at Disney California Adventure Park. “World of Color – Winter Dreams” may be seen during the holiday season, which starts in November.

Adventures by Disney:

- A new vacation experience to Norway guides families through an eight-day, seven-night adventure across the stunning lands that inspired the movie “Frozen”: Fjords, Bergen and Oslo

Disneyland Paris:

- Elsa, Anna and Olaf appear in the “Disney Magic On Parade”

Disney Cruise Line:

- Anna is onboard the Disney Fantasy and Disney Dream
- Olaf greets guests at the post office on Castaway Cay
- Guests can watch “Frozen” in the theaters on all four Disney cruise ships
