

Value is the Rave at Disney's All-Star Resorts

Trio of Value-Priced Walt Disney World Resort Hotels

LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. — Value, fun and convenience are all rolled up into one at Disney's All-Star Resorts, where guests can lodge in three distinct resorts themed to music, movies or sports.

Each of the three All-Star resorts feature whimsical theming and modest rates ranging from $96-$210 per night depending on the season. Most rooms sleep a family of four. In addition to these colorful, fun-filled lodging options, guests can enjoy free bus transportation throughout Walt Disney World property.

And when it comes to dining, each All-Star resort has a food court that offers a variety of delicious dining options throughout the day at value prices.

Disney's All-Star Resorts are the perfect choice for budget-conscious vacationers. The line-up:

Disney's All-Star Music Resort – The 246-acre Disney's All-Star Music Resort doesn't "miss a beat" with giant banjos, guitars, trombones, conga drums and maracas boldly greeting guests. A collection of three-story buildings — which feature themes like Broadway, Calypso, Jazz, Country and Rock 'n' Roll — make up the 1,704 room hotel. The music theme continues into the two pools, one in the shape of a guitar and the other a grand piano. Family suites that sleep up to six can be found in the Calypso and Jazz wings. These accommodations include three separate sleeping areas, two bathrooms, and a kitchenette with rates ranging from $239-$422, depending on the season.

Disney's All-Star Movies Resort – Big stars like a 35-foot-tall Buzz Lightyear from the movie "Toy Story" and a 21-foot-tall Herbie the famous bug welcome guests to Disney's All-Star Movies Resort. Guests will be delighted by colossal images from "101 Dalmatians," "Fantasia" and "The Mighty Ducks." Guests looking for a cinematic swim can "skate" into the hockey rink-themed pool in the Mighty Ducks or join Sorcerer Mickey as he directs a liquid symphony at Fantasia Pool.

Disney's All-Star Sports Resort – Gigantic football helmets, megaphones, surfboards and basketballs team up with value prices to score a winning Walt Disney World vacation at Disney's All-Star Sports Resort. Guests will cheer the main icons of the resort that sits on a 246-acre site just east of Disney's Animal Kingdom. More than 900 colorful fish appear to be swimming along a "wavy" balcony at Surf's Up; pennants of favorite college teams rim the Hoops Hotel roof line; and stadium lights, scoreboards and an outfield fence recall a day at the ballpark at Home Run Hotel. And don't forget the pool in the shape of a baseball infield.
