

Disney Gives ‘Ratatouille’ Fan Sneak Peek of New EPCOT Attraction

Emily Jacobsen is so excited for Remy’s Ratatouille Adventure – the magical new attraction debuting in 2021 at EPCOT in Florida – she created a song about Remy and posted a video online of herself singing it. The clip became a worldwide social media phenomenon, inspiring others to share their love for the “Little Chef” through music.

On Sunday, Dec. 27, while vacationing at Walt Disney World Resort, Jacobsen experienced some Disney magic all her own when she was whisked backstage at EPCOT for a surprise sneak peek of the forthcoming attraction. Based on Disney and Pixar’s hit film “Ratatouille,” this family-friendly experience will invite guests to shrink down to the size of a rat for a culinary adventure with Chef Remy, racing across Gusteau’s kitchen floor. Disney cameras were on hand to capture Jacobsen’s reaction during and after her special tour.

Remy’s Ratatouille Adventure is one of several new experiences coming to EPCOT as part of the park’s historic transformation.
