

Festive Frights for Up to 35 Nights! New Mickey's Not-So-Scary Halloween Party Pass Is Perfect for Happy Haunting this Year at Walt Disney World Resort

LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. (Aug. 16, 2019) – For the 2019 not-so-spooky season, Walt Disney World Resort is introducing the new Mickey's Not-So-Scary Halloween Party Pass, giving families the opportunity to experience Mickey's-Not-So-Scary Halloween Party at Magic Kingdom Park for up to 35 nights.

For these passholders, this means more of everything they love about Mickey's Not-So-Scary Halloween Party – more nights, more special attractions and entertainment, more eerie experiences, more sweets and more family fun than any trick-or-treater could possibly imagine. For $299 per adult (plus tax) or $284 (plus tax) for children, Disney guests can get in the “spirit” of this bewitching season more than ever. Note: This pass is not valid for admission on Oct. 31, 2019.

Mickey's Not-So-Scary Halloween Party is a separately ticketed event that takes place after normal park hours. This year it will take place on a record number of select nights in 2019 from Aug. 16 through Nov. 1. A new fireworks, projection and laser show – “Disney's Not So Spooky Spectacular” – joins such fan favorites as “Mickey's Boo-to-You Halloween Parade,” the “Hocus Pocus Villain Spelltacular” stage show, Disney characters in their finest Halloween garb and trick-or-treating throughout the park.

The frightfully festive fun also includes spellbinding décor, spooky lighting and spine-tingling music park-wide. Children are encouraged to dress in costumes, and party guests are treated to several Magic Kingdom rides and attractions tricked out in the spirit of the season just for the party.

A great value for Florida residents and families, Mickey's Not-So-Scary Halloween Party Pass invites guests to visit again and again for Halloween fun as only Disney can scare up. This pass is only available, in limited quantities, and can be purchased at any Walt Disney World theme park ticket window; guests with an existing event ticket can modify to a Mickey's Not-So-Scary Season Pass by calling (407) 939-4295 or visiting any Walt Disney World theme park ticket window.
